ABOUT DHM

In 2012, we began managing a collection of tourism properties. Today, we do much more than that. As a group, we currently manage 18 hotels and five golf courses, whose teams are fully dedicated to adding value to our visitors' experiences every time they are with us. Experience and attitude are the keywords that define us. We believe there is not another way to manage. We want to make a difference in everything we do, so that no one forgets what they lived and experienced with us. For this very reason, in addition to our informal approach, we are authentic: each DHM property has its own identity, which reflects its location and local culture, cuisine, traditions and natural surroundings.
